

Roadmap

Cryptops

9/16/2022

Third quarter 2022

- Finish the Cryptops whitepaper.
- Create Cryptops project roadmap.
- Create and test the direct BTC to COE bridge.
- Further research bridges with other crypto currencies.
- Evaluate protocol updates and begin making upgrades the Cryptops blockchain protocol if necessary.
- Review merging upstream Stellar code changes into the Cryptops core.

Fourth Quarter 2022

- Start the COE utility coin ICO by creating the trade order book directly on the Cryptops blockchain.
- Move the direct BTC to COE bridge from the test networks to the main public networks.
- Continue work on a Cryptops option trading web application with various functions to trade and interact with the blockchain.
- Code improvements and testing of the option asset values updating engine to increase the velocity when submitting to the blockchain.
- Create and test code for the automatic roll over of the new years option asset issuer.
- Work on the ITM option assets settlement engine.

First quarter 2023

- Greatly expand on the series of option assets running on the test network and continue with further testing.
- Make a download of the Cryptops Laboratory publicly available.
- Document how to sign offline transactions and then submit them online to the blockchain.
- Continue investigating the merging in of upstream Stellar code changes into the Cryptops core.
- Make a public image server available for Cryptops core and horizon server for both the test and public networks.
- Document how to download an image from the image server and run a Cryptops node for both the test and public networks.
- Continue working on the development of and testing the option assets direct chain to chain settlement method.
- Make available a trading application to discover and view option assets on the Cryptops network.

Second quarter 2023

- Make the official launch of live option assets on the Cryptops public network.
- Begin researching the adding of new crypto currency option assets to the Cryptops blockchain network.
- Explore ways of making improvements to the Cryptops direct option blockchain experience.